The final report states that the Indian Knowledge System (IKS) that is knowledge of Vedas and Puranas, can now be "creditised" under the NCrf on par with other fields of endeavor, including performing arts (dance, Indian classical music), games and sports (Olympics, federation games, Asian Games, etc.), master craftsmen of heritage and traditional skills, social work with high impact or in priority areas, and more.

If you are interested in performing arts, or craftsmanship or are a budding sportsman, there is good news for you. A final report on the National Credit Framework \(NCrf\) released by the University Grants Commission \(UGC\) on

(Olympics, federation games, Asian Games, etc.), master craftsmen of heritage and traditional skills, social work with high impact or in priority areas, and more can be used by students to gain credits in both school education and higher education.
